Holy Week Worship Opportunities

Journey to Eternal Light Sunday, Tonight at 7 pm Maurice Duruflé's Requiem was chosen as the first half of the concert because it is so beautiful, emotional and spiritual. The composer draws inspiration from Christian liturgy; through the beautiful choral lines and fiery orchestral accompaniment, the music creates a sacred space where we can feel the presence of God. Ola Gjello's Sunrise Mass was chosen because, as the name implies, it is a wonderfully uplifting piece of music. The composer creates a piece that starts in darkness and eventually ends with light. This piece is a terrific compliment to Duruflé's Requiem because it re-energizes the listener and beautifully summarizes what this concert is all about: our journey through the Lenten season ends in the best possible way – the resurrection of our Lord and King!

Becoming living proof of God's love, one person at a time.

Welcome Guests!

We are honored to worship with you today. No matter where you are in your faith journey, you are welcome here.

We are pursuing a mission of becoming living proof of God's love, one person at a time. We walk together on this journey of discovering a different kind of life – the life we were created for – life in God's love.

All are invited to participate in Communion here. We welcome children of all ages into the service and to participate; later in the service children are dismissed for their own time of worship and community.*

PRAYER Labyrinth

There are many ways to use this finger labyrinth: for prayer, discernment, healing and self-awareness. Some find the labyrinth to be especially helpful in times of loss and transition.

THE WAY IN: Release. In following the winding way in, you are invited to shed everything on your mind - your worries, fears, concerns. Let it all go. Start on the outside entrance to the labyrinth and use your finger to trace the path into the center.

AT THE CENTER: Receive and rest. Be still and wait for a sense of God's presence that may be a feeling, thought, image or a sense of peace. Take as much time as you need. Hold your finger in the center during this time.

THE WAY OUT: Return. As you slowly wind your way out, take note of God's presence as you integrate whatever you received or learned, as you return to the world. Trace the path back out the way you came in.
